Millions Call Him 'Bobby'

Kennedy Visits Escanaba Saturday

Millions around the world call him "Bobby", the people of New York elected him their representative in the U.S. Senate, and the New York Times recently described him as "rising and changing faster than any political figure in the nation."

Senator Robert F. Kennedy will bring his own brand of political magic to Escanaba on Saturday afternoon, and thousands are expected to be on hand to see and hear him.

He will have with him G. Mennen Williams, former Michigan governor and Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate in the Nov. 8 election; and Zoltan Ferency, Democratic candidate for governor.

Kennedy is urging the election of Democratic candidates in Michigan on his tour but the reaction of the people will be watched closely by the big press corps which is accompanying for indications of the dimensions of the political strength of Kennedy himself at this time.

Crowd reaction will be a possible clue to the timing of the Kennedy campaign for the Presidency. National speculation has suggested that Kennedy may try to push Hubert Humphrey out of the vice presidency in the 1968 Democratic convention to bolster a sagging Lyndon Johnson, or that he may try for the Presidency then, although political tradition indicates that it would be very difficult to unseat President Johnson.

There will be two plane-loads of press representatives arriving at Escanaba Airport Saturday afternoon before the Con- vey carrying Senator Kennedy and his party arrives at 4 p.m. from Pontiac. The senator will sign autographs and greet the crowd at the airport and then move by motorcade on 23rd St. S. to Escanaba Area High School. The speaking program there will start at 4:15 p. m. and at 5 p. m. with Senator Kennedy leaving for the airport to board his plane and fly to Buffalo, N. Y. for a 7:30 p. m. meeting there.

There will be accommodations at the high school for 60 press representatives and WLUC-TV, WLUC-TV and WFRV-TV and radio stations WLST, WDBC and WMAM will carry the program live. Seating will accommodate 2,400 in the gym in bleachers and 500 on floor chairs, with any overflow to be accommodated on chairs in the school commons adjoining the gym.

Kennedy's representative said that his tight schedule did not permit a motorcade on Ludington St., or a press conference, planned earlier. He will speak at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, at the University of Detroit Memorial Building and at Pontiac before flying to Escanaba Saturday.

They will be joined at Escanaba by Congressman Raymond Cleveland of Sault Ste. Marie, who is seeking reelection in the Democratic ticket in the 11th District.

The Kennedy plane with Williams and Ferency is scheduled to land at the Escanaba airport at 4 p.m. Saturday and take off again at 5:15 p.m.

Eighty Busy Minutes
There are 75 busy minutes arranged for the maximum exposure to the public of Sen. Kennedy between those hours of arrival and departure, with arrangements centered in the Delta County Democratic Headquarters. George St. Louis, Democratic chairman, said he expects a crowd of 4,000 or more to hear and see Kennedy.

Officials from throughout the Upper Peninsula are expected to participate in the welcome for Kennedy. Representing the local communities will be Mayor Harold Vanierberghe, Escanaba; Mayor Frank Stupak, Gladstone; and Dr. William Hemes, president, Escanaba Chamber of Commerce.

Leonard H. Shay, Germfask businessman, will be the master of ceremonies at the program to be held in the gymnasium of the Escanaba Area Public High School.

Kennedy will be introduced, however, by Rep. Cleveland, whose campaign for reelection also had an assist from Orville L. Freeman, Secretary of Agriculture. Freeman praised Cleveland at Iron Mountain recently.

Noting the development of Kennedy as a "powerful political movement," the New York Times comments:

"Even his famous brother, at age 40, though only three years from the presidency, never created the stir or drew the crowds outside his own state that Bobby has been getting in his present tour through the west."

Accomplished Speaker
Kennedy makes Michigan one of his primary targets in heading east and will speak in Ypsilanti, Detroit, Pontiac and Escanaba on Saturday.

"He is turning into an accomplished public speaker," says the Times. "His platform manner is a faithful copy of his brother's."

Sen. Kennedy's background is one of solid experience in national affairs. At the age of 26 as campaign manager for his brother's first campaign for the Senate; at 30 he almost won the vice presidential nomination for his brother; and at 34 he directed the campaign which made John F. Kennedy the 35th U.S. President.

Bobby became Attorney General in his brother's cabinet, and the Associated Press reports that he was considered the second most important man in Washington during his brother's brief administration that ended with his assassination.

At the age of 39 Bobby Kennedy won election to the Senate from New York, marking the beginning of his own political career. The Kennedys live in McLean, Va., with their nine children.

"THE DISSIDENT elements must be brought into any peace talks," Sen. Robert F. Kennedy said earlier this year in an interview regarding Viet Cong participation in the South Vietnamese election. The New York Senator will speak in Escanaba Saturday afternoon. (AP Wirephoto)

Big Ammunition Dump Explosion Felt At Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Two American servicemen were reported killed and 10 wounded tonight when a U.S. Army ammunition dump exploded in a huge ball of fire 12 miles north of Saigon.

First reports had said the blast apparently inflicted only slight casualties, but Associated Press correspondent John Lang reported from the scene that American authorities there reported a heavier casualty toll. The blast laid waste the surrounding jungle and broke windows in Saigon.

Large numbers of American troops are based in the Long Binh area, which is a supply area for the U.S. 1st and 25th divisions. A large hospital also is in the area.

The explosion ripped through an open ammunition dump containing propellant charges for 175mm howitzer shells. U.S. authorities said they were not sure whether the cause of the blast was accidental or sabotage.

The dump is located on a bulldozed tract of jungle just off the main Saigon-Cap St. Jacques highway.

A series of small explosions followed the main blast, a U.S. spokesman said, starting several fires in the dump area. These were extinguished by 10:30 p.m., 90 minutes after the first explosion.

U.S. helicopters took to the skies over the dump, much of which had not exploded. Flares lit up the sky and all roads in the area were blocked off. Newsmen were not permitted to enter the explosion area. The force of the explosion burst doors open in Saigon's waterfront restaurants and broke windows in some shops on the main streets. Ears popped, and people who threw open their windows to look out saw a huge fireball in the sky. One witness described the fireball as being "just like a sunset." Then a black pillar of smoke rose into the sky.

Jail Sentences And Baby Diet

FLINT (AP)—The 10-day jail sentences given Gerald McCullough and William Byram, both 18, include two days on a baby food diet for each. Justice William L. Douglas specified the baby food Thursday in sentencing McCullough and Byram because "they acted like babies" in drinking and knocking down citizens' mail boxes in the Goodrich area near here.

Byram and McCullough also were fined $25 each and ordered to pay $15 court costs on charges of destruction of property.

Justice Douglas said young offenders nowadays "laugh off jail sentences and money does not seem important to them."

Red Peace Bid Reply: Guided Missile Blast

Johnsons Given Royal Welcome In Thai Capital

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—President Johnson helicoptered into the center of a royal welcome today in Thailand's teeming capital.

He predicted peace would someday come to all Asia. The President and his wife landed at the Royal Plaza in the heart of Bangkok after an overnight seaside rest at Bang Saen, 68 miles to the southeast. Their arrival launched two crowded days of ceremonies and other activities.

Jazz-loving, Massachusetts-born King Bhumibol Adulyadej and his diminutive Queen Sirikit greeted the Johnsons at the door of their helicopter and led the welcome on behalf of this Southeast Asian ally country three-fourths the size of Texas.

Pomp, ceremony and pageantry, laid on by royalty for the first visit by an American President to Thailand while in office, kept the leaders in the downtown area of the sweltering city for much of the afternoon.

School children waving Thai and American flags lined the route as the presidential motorcade drove slowly to the municipal pavilion to be greeted by the lord mayor of the city. The crowd was very orderly and there was no repetition of the mob scenes which greeted the President at earlier stops on his tour.

Joseph Caserio Dies In Cplumet

CALUMET (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Saturday for Joseph Caserio, father of General Motors Corp., vice president Martin J. Caserio. The elder Caserio died Wednesday in Laurium of a heart attack. He was 75.

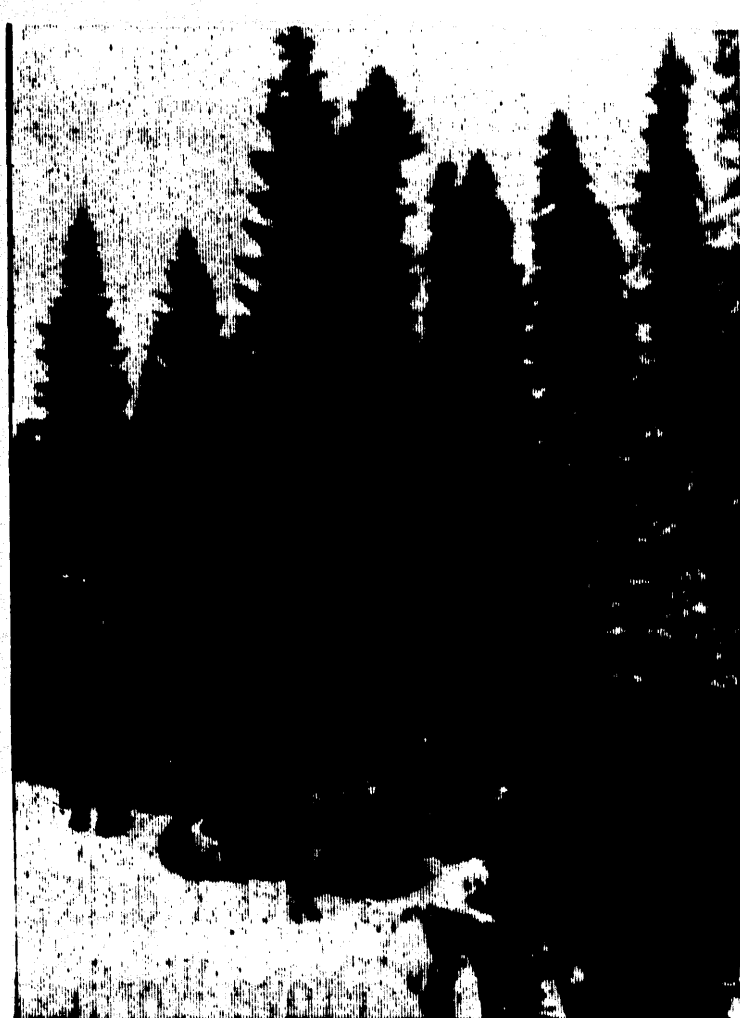

His son is vice president and general manager of GM's truck and coach division in Pontiac. Caserio was a former employee of Calumet and Hecla copper company and in recent years operated a gasoline and oil business.

Only Nov. 8 Poll Matters: Soapy

By The Associated Press
G. Mennen Williams said Thursday results of his latest political poll show he leads Sen. Robert P. Griffin, his GOP opponent 43 to 40 per cent with 17 per cent of the voters undecided.

But, said Williams, "the only poll that really counts is the one on Nov. 8 and I am confident that I am going to win that one."

Williams headquarters said the recently completed survey was conducted by Oliver Quayle and Co. Inc.

SURROUNDED by snow in California's Sierra region, this 65-foot true red fir is to be harvested in November for rail trip to Washington, D.C., where it will be put up on the White House grounds. There, it will be lighted in full glory Dec. 16 as the national community Christmas tree—part of the Christmas Pageant of Peace. (AP Wirephoto)

Rights Denied, Peril To Nation: Romney

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney said Thursday that unless America insures that all of its citizens are granted their rights as human beings, the United States is in for trouble.

Romney made the remark in answering a statement from the audience at a Warren Kiwanis Club meeting. "God was the greatest segregationist of all time," a man told Romney.

Romney said this was not so, adding that God laid down the gospel for all people.

"The have-not nations—who almost all happen to be colored—it's almost identical—will be turned on us by our enemies," Romney said, if we fail to give all Americans equal rights.

The governor received a campaign gift of $2,127 from employees at T-R-W Inc. in Warren while visiting several plants. It was donated through the firm's plan of encouraging employees to donate to candidates of their choice.

Romney told newsmen he has been given increased support from labor in each election. He said he took 34 per cent of the labor vote in 1962, 48 per cent in 1964 and said he may pick up 50 per cent on Nov. 8.

Romney is opposing Democratic State Chairman Zoltan Ferency in running for a third term.

Apollo Launch Moved To 1967

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Problems with the Apollo 1 spacecraft have ruled out the possibility of launching it into orbit this year with a three-man crew.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration had hoped to move the launch forward into December from its originally planned "first quarter of 1967."

However, the problems make a launching this year impossible, NASA sources reported.

The troubles involve Apollo 1's environmental control system, which is designed to provide life support for the three astronauts for up to 14 days.

Pilots for the Apollo 1 mission will be Air Force Lt. Col. Virgil I. Grissom and Edward H. White II and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Roger B. Chaffee. They are to bring out all systems of the craft, forerunner of the vehicle that is to transport U.S. astronauts to the moon.

Preparations were progressing smoothly here for the four-day Gemini 12 flight launching Nov. 9. This final Gemini flight will be piloted by Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr.

Sheppard's Wife Attends Retrial

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Samuel H. Sheppard's German-born second wife attended the fifth day of his murder retrial today as selection of a jury neared completion.

Both state and defense used the last of the four peremptory challenges each had, and at the midmorning recess seven men and four women were seated in the jury box with one chair yet to be filled.

China Warhead Test May Dash Bomb Ban Hope

TOKYO (AP)—Red China underlined its rejection of new efforts to ban the spread of nuclear weapons and fresh allied peace moves in Viet Nam by claiming to have exploded a nuclear warhead carried by a guided missile Thursday. It said the achievement should be "a great encouragement" to Hanoi.

The blast—the fourth Chinese nuclear test since Oct. 16, 1964—took place two days after President Johnson and leaders of six other allied countries made new Viet Nam peace commitments in Manila and amid some signs of U.S.-Soviet progress toward a treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons.

Counter To Manila
The Chinese test came as Johnson, on his first overseas trip as President, was in Thailand, whose northernmost border is only about 100 miles from Red China. Its timing suggested it was designed to take Asian eyes away from the President's trip and the aftermath of the Manila conference.

The announcement, made early today by Peking's New China News Agency, did not report how far the missile traveled, where the test was staged or the size of the warhead.

But the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said it had detected an explosion in the general area of the Lop Nor testing site in Singkiang Province. It said it was in the low to low-intermediate range — 20,000 tons to 300,000-to-1,000,000 tons. The Shima bomb was about 20,000 tons.

Evidence Lacking
The AEC said it had no evidence to confirm or deny the Chinese claim of using a missile to deliver the nuclear warhead. Other U.S. officials noted that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara predicted last year that Peking might have nuclear strike capability of 500-700 miles by early 1967.

A missile capable of delivering a nuclear warhead that distance could pose a threat to Nationalist-held Formosa, Thailand or Okinawa, the big U.S. military fortress 400 miles off the China coast.

It also would bring neighboring India, bested by China in a border war four years ago, and the Soviet Union, with which China's relations grow steadily worse, under a nuclear gun from next door.

Questions Unanswered
The only details of the Chinese test came in a paragraph at the beginning of the Chinese announcement.

"On Oct. 27, 1966, China successfully conducted over its own territory a guided missile nuclear weapon test. The guided missile flew normally and the nuclear warhead accurately hit the target at the appointed distance, effecting a nuclear explosion."

The announcement did not answer important questions sure to be raised in the capitals of the seven allies fighting in Viet Nam: Can the Chinese missile be used in tactical battle situations? Would it be at the disposal of North Viet Nam?

State Will Not Appeal Dropping Of C&O Trains

LANSING (AP)—The state decided Thursday not to appeal a federal ruling allowing the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway to discontinue its two passenger trains between Grand Rapids and Traverse City.

The Interstate Commerce Commission ruled Monday in favor of the railroad, which asked to discontinue the trains last year after it lost a $202,000-a-year U.S. mail contract on the run.

Peter Spivak, chairman of the Michigan Public Service Commission, said there does not appear to be a reasonable chance a court would overturn the ICC order.

The railroad company has announced plans to discontinue the two trains after Saturday. This would eliminate all the line's passenger service between the two cities.

Oriskany Fire Victims Start Journey Home

SUBIC BAY, Philippines (AP)—The flame-scorched aircraft carrier Oriskany, looking like the victim of a kamikaze attack, headed in the Philippines today to say goodbye to 43 fallen shipmates and to begin what was described as a "tremendous job" of repair.

The 45,000-ton carrier steamed about 650 miles from her station in the Gulf of Tonkin where two days ago she was racked by a white hot magnesium-fed blaze.

Within two hours after the Oriskany tied up at the U.S. Naval Base on Subic Bay, the flag-draped remains of 35 officers and eight enlisted men were carried from the ship to a plane which flew them to Clark Air Force Base north of Manila on the first leg of their journey home.

Six chaplains uttered quiet prayers and a bugler sounded taps as the 3,400-man ship's company stood at attention.

As the rites were held, a formal Navy investigation of the disaster was under way and hard-hatted ship repair workers were swarming over the smoke-blackened, fire-twisted hangar deck where the blaze centered.

Gladstone Gets $78,000 Grant

A $78,000 Economic Development Administration grant has been authorized to help Gladstone provide facilities to serve a new industrial park. Congressman Raymond Clevenger and Senator Philip Hart said today.

Gladstone will match the federal grant with $78,000 from local sources to finance the $156,000 project.

Clevenger said the funds will be used to extend watermain and sewers and to build an access road to serve the city-owned 30-acre park site.

Construction is expected to be completed in 12 months, according to Gladstone officials.

The grant was authorized under the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965 which authorizes provides funds for projects that will attract new industry and economic development in economically depressed and low income areas.

Report Vandalism At Holy Name HS

A front end loader, parked under a street light at Holy Name High School, was used by vandals to push over goal posts at the Holy Name practice field Thursday night. It was reported to Escanaba police.

Charles Propst, 412 S. 19th St., told police that he saw two persons the size of teenagers on the field at about 7:50 p. m., but he could not say who they were.

The loader, being used in filling an area at the school, had the bucket bent and two tires flattened.

Police are continuing their investigation.

Kelvinator Faces Strike Deadline

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Union and company officials met with federal mediators today in an effort to ward off a strike at American Motors' Kelvinator plant in suburban Wyoming.

A midnight Saturday strike deadline was set up by 2,700 members of Local 206, United Auto Workers union, at a meeting last month. Jake Weber, UAW international representative, said if no settlement was reached today, a membership meeting would be held Saturday to decide whether to strike.

Weber said five grievances involving job classification, holiday pay and the disciplining of union members by the company were at issue.

In Detroit, an AMC spokesman said originally 12 grievances were filed by the union, but seven had been resolved.

Northern Asks State Aid Hike

MARQUETTE—Gross appropriations of $19,062,338 for operation and capital outlay will be sought by Northern Michigan University for the 1967-68 academic year. Of the total, $10,381,138 is being asked for operating funds and $8,711,200 for capital outlay projects.

Northern's Board of Control also voted to request a new state appropriation of $8.6 million for next year, up $3.9 million from the current year.

President Edgar L. Harden said the money was needed to hire new teachers and non-academic employees, hike faculty and staff salaries, provide for increased employee retirement and fringe benefits, and to meet increased operating costs.

The Board also learned that NMU's rapid growth—from 4,291 students in 1964-65 to this year's 6,897 record enrollment and next year's estimate of 8,000—has caused a backlog of deficit.

Dr. Harden said Northern is attempting to reduce the disparity in the state net per capita allocation among state educational institutions, on which appropriations in the past few years have been based, by asking $1 million more for operation than it would have under the present allocation ratio.

This year, with 6,987 students, Northern is receiving $691.34 per capita. Next year, if budget requests are granted, the University will receive $1,086 per student, based on a projected enrollment of 8,000.

Meter Maids Prove Worth

Escanaba parking meter checkers (the city prefers that term to meter maids) are more than paying their way since their use was begun in August, 1964, according to a report compiled by Howard Smale, administrative assistant.

The city employs only one parking meter checker at a time, however, and there have been two since that type of parking meter enforcement was started. Prior to August, 1964, police patrolmen enforced the parking meter regulations.

For the fiscal years ending June 30, meter collections were: 1963—$28,149; 1964—$27,741; 1965—$28,076; 1966—$28,944.

"The fiscal year figures for 1965 and 1966 reflect the parking meter checker enforcement results as opposed to the balances of the fiscal years ending 1963 and 1964, which are the results of patrolmen enforcement. When these figures are compared with the wage costs, it is easy to see that we obtain greater efficiency for less cost with the parking meter checker (meter maid) method of enforcement," Smale said.

As a reminder to motorists who may have forgotten: Parking meter violation fines are 50 cents if paid within 24 hours; $1 per violation after 24 hours; and Municipal court levies the fine after seven days delinquency.

Bark River

Scholarship Registration
Bark River - Harris High School Students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and to enter college in 1968 can register now to participate in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship Program, Principal Lloyd Bruce announced today.

The first step for students who wish to enter the competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test which will be given in the school at 9 a. m., Tuesday, Feb. 28, 1967.

In addition to competing for the scholarship to be awarded in 1968, students can take the test to obtain information useful in planning their future education and careers. With the scores, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him evaluate his scores, compare his performance with that of other high school students across the country, and give him information on choosing a college and financing his education.

Delta Sends 78 Men:

Pre-Induction Call Issued

A total of 78 Delta County men have been ordered to report for pre-induction examinations for the U. S. Army, Mary M. Wagner, clerk of Local Draft Board 21, announced today.

Registrants will report to the Selective Service office, 1103 Ludington St., at 4:30 a. m. Tuesday, Nov. 1. After breakfast at a local restaurant, the men will be transported to the Milwaukee examination center. The men will return the same day.

Miss Wagner said that freshmen in college ordered for pre-induction on this call will be ordered for induction when their number is reached, but actual induction will be postponed until the end of the school year. At that time, students completing their freshman year will be reclassified 2-S if they have a ranking in the upper half of their class, or if they have taken the Selective Service test and attained a score of 70 or more.

Selective service regulations require that all student classifications be reviewed at the end of each academic year and at any other time a student's status changes, Miss Wagner said.

Ordered to report for pre-induction are:

Board Of Education Meets In Rock

ROCK—The Rock Board of Education met at the school Monday evening. The Board approved the request for bus drivers to attend the bus drivers school at Escanaba, and to have several students and an advisor attend the program on "Communicating With Your Teenager" at Escanaba, Nov. 4.

The school has received the driver education car and drivers training has begun.

Mrs. Pauline Sayen who retired this fall was recently honored with a party, a gift and a certificate in recognition and appreciation of meritorious service as the school cook.

The Board has purchased some large instruments for the school band and the band boosters will try to raise funds to purchase uniforms.

Chaperones approved to accompany students on the dental bus are Mrs. Robert Wein-gartner, Mrs. Betty Sharkey, Mrs. Dorothy Ontoo, Mrs. John Small, Mrs. Reino Niemela, Mrs. Robert Koeki, Mrs. Vernie Wadeen and Mrs. Felix Mijour.

The Board adjourned to attend the band concert presented by the Rock High School band for the benefit of the Rock P. T. A. The fifty piece band will also perform during the Christmas program, Dec. 20.

Christmas Stamp First Day Sales At 8 a.m. Nov. 1

CHRISTMAS (AP)—Nov. 1 is the big day for Christmas. Thousands of persons are expected in this Upper Peninsula community on that day to obtain the some 700,000 first-day cancellations of the official 1966 Christmas postage stamp.

Fred Belen, deputy postmaster general, said today the stamp, a reproduction of the 16th Century painting "Madonna and Child with Angels" by Hans Memling, will go on sale at 8 a. m.

Speaking with Belen at ceremonies commemorating issuance of the stamp will be Walter Treloar, publisher of The Marquette Mining Journal.

Power Line Gunmen Warned By Police

State Police of the Gladstone Post today issued a warning to juveniles and youths who have been using U. P. Power Co. insulators as targets for rifle practice between Kipling and Rapid River.

"Those power lines carry 34,000 volts," said Sgt. W. I. Treichel, commander of the post.

Treichel said that 28 insulators on high tension lines along Soo Line railroad tracks have been shot out in a period which began a couple of months ago. He said that tampering with a public utility, besides being extremely dangerous, is a felony. It is also expensive for the power company to continue making repairs.

Anyone caught shooting at the power lines or insulators will be prosecuted, he warned.

Sailmaker To Return West

The William J. Schmitts of Ford River, who have operated a sailmaking business here for the past year, will leave next week to return to Tacoma, Wash., and there rejoin two sons who are in business in the Tacoma area.

Schmitt will continue the sailmaking business there. Business has been good here, but the family wants to return to Tacoma, Schmitt reported.

A former Ford River mink rancher, Schmitt moved to Washington to establish a mink ranch there about 20 years ago. The Schmitts are natives of Escanaba and Ford River and decided to return here in 1964 and make their home on the Ford River shore.

Schmitt went into the sailmaking business on the West Coast when a son was in the Sea Scouts. Under the name Nor'wester Sails he did a growing business on the Coast and decided to move back to the Escanaba area.

The Schmitts purchased a place on the shore and built a sail loft, where the sailmaking has been carried on for the past year.

The business thrived here also, and Nor'wester Sails turned out about 700 sails in its first year at Ford River. Nor'wester Sails will continue in business in Tacoma, temporarily in the same loft which Schmitt used before moving here.

Award winners were announced Wednesday night by Ray Meyers marksmanship instructor, at the meeting of the Bark River Junior Rifle Club held in the Community Hall. Felix Sachek received a marksman 1st Class medal and certificate; David Bugay, sharpshooter 5th bar; Richard Grzyb, 6th bar. Gary Palmgren became a new member.

The Postal Team Match regulations were received and explained by Meyers. Entries have been sent in for four local teams to participate, ten members to each team.

The door prize of fifty rounds of .22 ammunition was won by Suzanne DeBen. The next business meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 23.

Better Hearing Society Meets

The Better Hearing and Speech Society met Wednesday night at the Chamber of Commerce building. Chosen as nominating committee were Mrs. Louis Cretens, chairman, Mrs. Audrey King and Miss Leona Dougherty.

The Escanaba Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, new sponsor of the Better Hearing and Speech Society, was represented by Mrs. Edward Saykily, Mrs. Edward O'Leary and Mrs. William Stenbol. Mrs. O'Leary, president, described the purposes and some activities of the sorority. An international organization of 8,000 chapters in 15 countries with a membership of 185,000, the aims include cultural development, writing contests, loan programs for members, and donation of time and money to community service. The Escanaba Chapter has 12 members.

Mrs. Audrey King reported on her visit to the Ida Oral Deaf Program in Lower Michigan. She said she was most impressed with the pre-school classes of three to five year olds, and even more excited as she watched a tutoring session with a nine month old baby, one of four deaf babies in the program.

Mrs. Rene Labre presented a report of the annual convention of the Michigan Association for Better Hearing at Lansing on Oct. 14-15.

On the program were Dr. Helmer Mykelbust, prominent psychologist in the field of deafness of Northwestern University, and others including Kenneth Gunderman Jr., a deaf adult and office manager, Burcham Products, Williams, Mich., a former Escanaban.

Former Resident Taken By Death

Mrs. Margaret Powell Jadin of Santa Rosa, Calif., died on Thursday. She was born in Escanaba in 1918 and attended Escanaba schools.

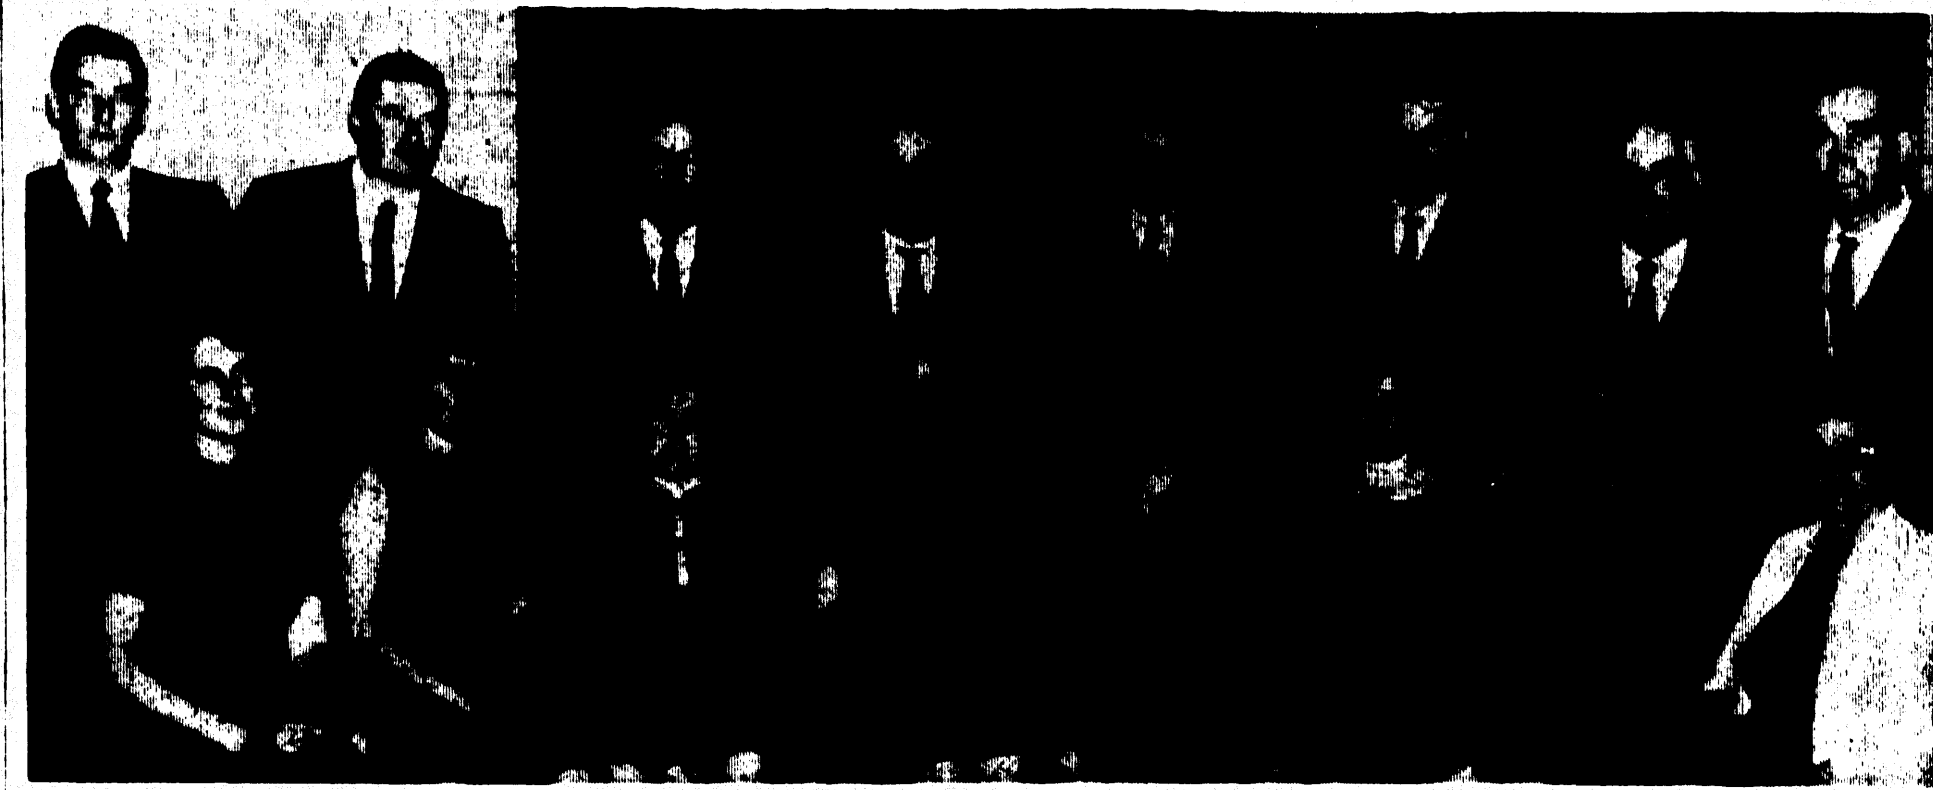

She is survived by her husband, Joseph I. Jadin, formerly of Gladstone; two daughters, Mary Jo and Peggy of Santa Rosa, and one son, Jim, serving in the armed services. Her mother, Mrs. George Powell, also survives.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Saturday in California with burial in a local cemetery.

Bark River

Trick or treating will be held in the Bark River-Harris area from 6 to 8 p. m. Monday for pre school and elementary children. Small children should be accompanied by an adult.

Ag Boosters Honor Morton Schire

AWARDISTS AT THE Agricultural Boosters Association dinner at Marco's Thursday night included: from left: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Taylor, Schaffer, poultry; Mr. and Mrs. Girard Vandamme, St. Nicholas, soil conservation; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Racicot, Schaffer, dairying; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Led-

vina, Flat Rock, peas; Mr. and Mrs. John Gucky, Escanaba, Christmas greens; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lippens, Hyde, potatoes; Mr. and Mrs. Morton Schire, Cornell, leadership award; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Witte, Schaffer, beef. (Daily Press Photo by Bernard Schultz)

Morton Schire, of Cornell won Delta County's farmer leadership award at the annual awards dinner of the Delta County Agricultural Boosters Association at Marco's Thursday evening with 200 in attendance.

Schire is a dairy farmer in a partnership with his brother, Howard.

Loyal Hanson, Bark River banker, read the citation honoring Schire and citing his broad community leadership. He is a charter member of the Cornell Lions Club and has held about every office in the organization, which has performed much public service. Its most recent action was award of a scholarship at Bay de Noc College.

Schire is a director of the Michigan Milk Producers Association and also active in the Michigan Farm Bureau and he has served as a Cornell Township supervisor and clerk. Mrs. Schire has been an outstanding 4-H Club leader.

Co-Chairmen George Bathke and Richard Marenger, co-chairmen of the Agricultural Committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, were general chairmen of the awards committee and Dr. William Hemes, president of the chamber, was toastmaster.

The other awards were presented by:

Bruce Fink, Production Credit Association manager, to Albert Lippens, of Hyde, for outstanding potato production. Lippens is a young grower who converted a dairy farm to potato production, remodeling the barn into a potato warehouse. He built a large addition to the warehouse this year and completely mechanized the operation. The Lippens don't touch a potato from the time it is taken from the ground to the deposit of the crop in the warehouse. Two years ago the Lippens enlarged their farm to provide additional potato acreage, now at 50 acres.

Beef Award

Ralph Kaziatek, Escanaba dairyman, to Matt Ledvina of Flat Rock, for outstanding beef production. This was a bad year for beef because of the drought, but Ledvina's yield of 3,053 pounds per acre of shelled peas was the county's best. The Ledvins grow peas as a cash crop on their dairy farm.

Roy Lee, produce firm executive, to Melvin Taylor of Schaffer for outstanding poultry management. In the past year Taylor has about doubled his production. He has about 25,000 laying hens, believed to be the largest laying flock in the Upper Peninsula. The eggs go to local merchants and to K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base. The birds are all caged.

Twenty-five years ago, said Joseph L. Heirman, Delta County Extension director, it would have taken more than 250 farms to match Taylor's egg production from one farm.

Soil Conservation

Walter Olson, Gladstone banker, to Girard Vandamme of St. Nicholas, for outstanding soil conservation. A potato grower, Vandamme is conserving his soil and building it up with green manure crops, pasture renovation and management, surface drainage, livestock exclusion and woodland management. He is now farming about 100 acres of potatoes yearly.

Poultry Award

Louis Welland, Escanaba dairyman, to Matt Ledvina of Flat Rock, for outstanding pea production. This was a bad year for peas because of the drought, but Ledvina's yield of 3,053 pounds per acre of shelled peas was the county's best. The Ledvins grow peas as a cash crop on their dairy farm.

Bobby Is Coming

U.S. Senator Robert Kennedy (D-New York) is coming to Escanaba on Saturday afternoon to campaign for Michigan's Democratic candidates.

The campaign — which has been rather lackluster — brings us in Senator Kennedy one of the best known and most controversial figures in the world.

That he will draw a throng to listen to his praise of the Democratic Party's nominees for state and federal offices seems assured. How much it will benefit the candidates is almost impossible to say but it will certainly provide a highlight of the campaign here and a memorable visit from a man who is generally regarded as a prime prospect for the Democrats' nomination for President. Just when is the big question.

There have been so many profiles of Bobby Kennedy that he is indisputably the most written-about young man in the world. He isn't much of a senator in the sense of committee appointments and attention to the every day routine of lawmaking, but he has political magic and he exercises it constantly, to the great consternation of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Newsweek magazine says of him: "He seems oddly fragile stepping out of his chartered campaign plane, patting his mod mop of hair into place, flashing his toothy and tentative grin, hunching his head down into his narrow shoulders as if he would rather not be noticed. There is little warmth in his glacier-blue eyes or his fingertip handshakes, and he recoils when, inevitably, a Beate-maniacal bobby-soxer tries to kiss him. His speaking style is wooden. Yet Robert Francis Kennedy is the phenomenon of a campaign autumn in which he is running for nothing—except the Presidency of the United States.

"He is, of course, the inheritor of a myth that refuses to die—the myth cherished by millions of Americans who discovered a taste for monarchy during the John Kennedy years and now dream of the Restoration.

"Bobby Kennedy has begun marking out a political identity all his own—a New Frontier a shade beyond the boundaries of Lyndon Johnson's Great Society . . . For all his prepossessing achievements, LBJ's popularity has skidded badly under the burdens of an ugly war, a ballooning inflation and a summer of racial trouble and the Kennedy star has risen accordingly. He is the Third Force in U.S. Politics, the exemplar of undefined change, the Democratic alternative to an older grayer President."

And the Escanaba area gets the thrill of his visit on Saturday. With him will be Zolton Ferency, the Democratic nominee for governor, whom President Johnson forgot to introduce on one occasion of his Labor Day visit to Detroit and who on another occasion mispronounced his name. Ferency, according to a campaign story, countered with the suggestion that, when elected, he'd go to Washington and say to the President: "How are you, LBQ?" G. Mennen Williams, the state's 6-time governor will be here as the party's nominee for the Senate. Although No. 2 man in party political protocol, he has been acting as No. 1 in this campaign. And Congressman Clevenger and other party nominees will be on hand, ever so happy about the availability of Bobby Kennedy on this Saturday afternoon so near the Nov. 8 election.

The Republican reaction is: "They must be scared if they bring in their biggest cannon!"

The GOP is wrapping up its appeal with a visit by Governor George Romney and the Republican nominees next Tuesday evening.

But there's an extra-political aura about Bobby Kennedy, the Democrats suggest. Seeing him, people will inevitably be reminded of his late brother, the President, and leaping ahead in fancy to what may be in the nation's political future.

Expect Cry For Women Priests

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Recent papal permission for nuns to give each other Communion in regions lacking priests is expected to spark a renewed cry for women priests.

An ordained female priest-hood in the Roman Catholic Church is the ultimate goal of at least one women's group. Some Catholic women smart under a feeling of secondary status within the Church — and the pontiff's decision on the nuns could be used to argue for further concessions.

Pope Paul VI ruled that any Mother Superior in a mission-lund convent could distribute the sacrament if no priest was available. But he said it must be done within the convent, only for other nuns, only for as long as a priest is absent, and without any power to consecrate

Forest Burning Tie To Life For Jackpine Warbler

MIO (AP) — Some 250 acres of the Huron National Forest were going up in smoke Wednesday night — all because of a little bird.

The State Conservation Department and U.S. Forest Service burned the acreage near Mio to provide a nesting ground for Kirtland's warbler.

The warbler is a rare bird that migrates to the Bahama Islands from the jackpine forests in Oscoda County, where it summers and nests in low, new growth of jackpine.

Two years ago, only about 1,000 of the warblers existed, but the total appears higher now that modern fire control methods have allowed the burning of forests to provide nesting grounds, conservation men said.

About 12,000 acres of state and national forests near Mio are managed almost exclusively to guarantee the preservation of the bird.

"I'll Give You an Exact Quote: 'I'm Not Running for Anything'!"

Jr. In Do-Die Effort

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
NEW YORK (NEA) — Even as New York Democratic leaders are undertaking an avowed hatchet campaign against Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., he is planning to confound them in the next governorship election as well as this one.

They are after him now because a John Kraft poll shows him taking three votes from Democratic nominee Frank D. O'Connor for every one he might take from Republican Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

If Roosevelt as Liberal party nominee were to hold to the finish, the 14 to 17 per cent of the total vote which the various polls presently show him getting, he could wind up Nov. 8 with as many as 800,000 votes.

Roosevelt himself sometimes talks wildly of getting 2,000,000 votes and even taking the race — or at least surpassing O'Connor's total.

What he has really wanted to do all along is pile up a big enough vote this time so that, by his measure anyway, he could become a serious factor in the 1970 Democratic competition for governor. Obviously, this assumes O'Connor's defeat in 1968 — with a huge shove from Roosevelt.

He has no illusions that, under these circumstances, party leaders would flock to him. He hopes for a new direct primary law, figuring he could win handily an open battle at the polls with anyone the leaders might name (except Sen. Robert F. Kennedy).

If no such law is adopted in the intervening years, then this campaign is very likely the youngest Roosevelt's last political hurrah. His earlier cries of a party "deal" for O'Connor's nomination were enough to do him in with the leaders.

Roosevelt, of course, gauged all this from the beginning. He told an old friend weeks ago that the "bosses" would never pick him and that therefore, at 32, he had either to run this time on the Liberal line or forget politics for good.

This he was not prepared to do. In part, then, his current campaign is a new "acting out" of his perennial dream of following in his illustrious father's footsteps. In it is an unconcealed act of revenge against the Democratic party for not granting him a bigger chance.

"Maybe they need to be hurt," he said a while back. Grudgingly, top New York Democrats agree that Roosevelt is hurting them — and O'Connor — much more than at first they thought he might. Says one leader of FDR Jr.:

"He's done his homework this time, and he's slimmered down some . . . He's pretty good on the streets, you know."

Roosevelt is, in fact, very good on the campaign trail. He is knowledgeable on the issues, yet unafraid to say candidly: "I don't know."

Both for him and for the voters he encounters, his quest for support is in marked degree an exercise in nostalgia. Those who recognize him (and not everybody does) behave as if they were staring at a sizeable chip off a big block of American history.

"Good luck! We still remember . . ." is the common thread in voter comment.

People are not always too clear about what he's after. Said one woman: "Bobby, shake hands with Mr. Roosevelt. He's running for something."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson had reason to smile as they posed with their individual trophies, emblematic of first place in the annual Upper Peninsula pair contract championship and prepare to receive the Escanaba Daily Press trophy, from the hands of L. W. Olson, tournament director. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson retained possession of the Daily Press trophy for one year.

Gordon H. Flath, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Flath, RFO, No. 1, of this city, played one of the leading roles in a production of the play, "Post Road" presented by the Columbia Players of the Columbia College of Drama and Radio in Chicago in the Curtis Hall Theatre in the Fine Arts Building.

The Scanlon-Olmsted Bowling team led by their alleys, defeated the City Bowling team by a margin of 18 pins in a three-game series.

An electric water fountain was the unusually attractive decorative novelty added to the equipment at the Mead Drug Company's store. A miniature fountain, mounted on an old ivory wicker stand, played its streams of water over a lighted electric bulb in the center of the fountain basin.

Color Show Blown

LANSING (AP) — High winds have brought down the curtain on Michigan's fall color show, except in extreme southern lower Michigan, the State Tourist Council reports. Even in the south, where good viewing is expected through the end of the month, high winds have knocked down 60 per cent of the leaves.

South starts with eight top tricks in a three-trump contract. With luck in both black suits he can make 11. Neither black suit breaks and if South just goes after them he will be held to his top eight.

When the hand was actually played East was allowed to hold the first trick with the king of diamonds and West the diamond return. South won the third diamond and led his four of spades to dummy's ten. East won with the jack but now South had four spade tricks and his contract.

West criticized East's play of the jack. He was right. East should have ducked. Obviously his Jack was going to remain with Jack because South's only dummy entry was the spade queen. A watching expert told West: "East was wrong but when you led the third diamond you gave South the hand, provided he knew how to play it the rest of the way."

The expert pointed out that South could lead back his last diamond. West would be in. East would have to discard for the third time and would throw away his last heart. After that South would squeeze East by leading the ace of hearts. If West led the queen of hearts instead of cashing the last diamond South could win, play his queen of spades, continue with ace-king-queen and a small club and force East to lead away from the Jack of spades.

West remarked, "Then there was no defense available." "Yes, there was," said the expert. "When you won the second diamond you could lead a low spade. It would be up to your partner to play low. Later on you would win a heart or diamond trick and lead a second spade to break up all squeezes and end plays."

Changes Allow For Widow's Remarriage

Dear Ann Landers: Apparently you were not aware of the changes in the Social Security laws or you would have given better advice to that 70-year-old widow who moved in with a gentleman of the same age.

The woman said marriage was out because she would then lose her deceased husband's social security. A widow can now remarry and collect 50% of her deceased husband's social security. Please tell her — and thousands of others. — FIELD REPRESENTATIVE F. N. T.

Dear Rep: Thank you for the information. And now to all of you golden age swingers who are living together without benefit of clergy — check with your local social security office and get married already.

Dear Ann Landers: Please don't ask parents to stay together for the sake of the children. I have a teen-age son who has been begging me to get a divorce. He says he cannot respect a woman who takes so much abuse.

My husband has told me in front of the boy that all women are tramps and not to be trusted. His mother carried on an affair with a roomer in her own home for years. His sisters were rounders, too. After they married they continued to chase with men, even though they had large families.

I have left my husband four times because my son has asked me to but I always go back. He has slapped me in front of the boy time and time again. I'm sure this makes my son lose respect for me. Please tell me what to do so I can have some peace of mind in my old age. — PROBLEMS GALORE

Dear Galore: Most women who stay with abusive husbands do so for themselves. By your own admission you can't live with the bum — or without him. Your husband is a sick cookie and you are sick too, or you would not have stayed around to take the abuse.

It is impossible to help people who refuse to help themselves. And you don't want to be helped. You'd rather wallow in your misery.

Dear Ann Landers: This letter is in regard to the Pittsburgh teen-ager who wrote to you about the elderly man who wanted to give her $5 because she exchanged a few pleasant words with him while waiting for an elevator. You praised the girl for her friendliness and I am not saying you were wrong, BUT

Please print something for young girls about the dangers of speaking to strange men. You understand what I am trying to say, don't you? Thanks very much. — Mrs. C. B.

Dear Mrs. C. B.: Yes, I do understand, and your point is certainly worth making. Small children should be taught not to speak to strangers, they should be taught never to accept a ride with strangers or to accept candy or any gift from strangers.

A 16-year-old girl, however, is not a small child. Certainly there is a vast difference between exchanging a few pleasant sentences with an elderly gentleman while waiting for an elevator and speaking to a man who seats himself next to you in a movie — or worse yet, loitering in a park.

Judgment is the operative word and judgment can be taught.

What is French kissing? Is it wrong? Who should set the necking limits — the boy or the girl? Can a shotgun wedding succeed? Read Ann Landers' booklet, "Teen-Age Sex—Ten Ways To Cool It." Send 50c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Thank you for your kind invitation to attend your alumni pancake breakfast. Unfortunately I will be unable to participate this year due to other commitments, but I look forward to next year's breakfast if it becomes an annual affair.

Congratulations to you for your initiative in sponsoring the event. I know the alumni will enjoy a chance to reminisce, see a bit of their past, and enjoy the M&M game.

Best success to the "Marines" in their clash with the "MHS" as they show them that "MHS is the best!"

Cong Strike At Mekong Convoy

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Vietnamese troops today claimed a smashing blow over the Viet Cong in the Mekong Delta. The Communists countered with two attacks on road and river military convoys in the canal-barges.

Three battalions of Vietnamese soldiers, backed up by American and Vietnamese air strikes, reported killing 137 Viet Cong in day-long fighting Thursday in rice fields 88 miles southwest of Saigon.

Farther south the Viet Cong attacked a convoy of rice-carrying barges escorted by seven Vietnamese patrol boats. The guerrilla force opened up on the convoy from both banks of the Co Co River, about 108 miles southwest of Saigon with 57mm recoilless rifle fire, sank one escort vessel and damaged one of the rice barges, a Vietnamese military spokesman reported. The convoy was transporting rice from Ba Lieu to Saigon.

In another attack in the delta today, the Viet Cong attempted to blow up a Vietnamese troop-carrying truck convoy with mines. A government spokesman said the mines damaged one truck of the 14-vehicle convoy as it was moving along a highway 44 miles southwest of Saigon.

Politics Sways Even Strippers

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Politics holds sway, so to speak, even among those who undress before the public for a living.

Until recently, strippers at a theater here used such show business names as Peeler Lawford, Fran Sinatra and Samya Davis Jr.

Now the marquee proclaims Patti Brown, Ronnie Reagan, Glenna Anderson and Roberta Finch.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is running for re-election against Republican Ronald Reagan. The Democratic lieutenant governor, Glenn M. Anderson, is opposed by Robert Finch.

Politicians Fear Influence, Delay Mock Election

NORTH VERNON, Ind. (AP)—A mock election by North Vernon High School pupils has been postponed because local politicians feared the results would influence adults.

Both Democrats and Republicans have objected to the mock balloting which has been held prior to the general election since 1956, school officials said.

In past years, the youngsters predicted upset victories by "electing" Sens. Vance Hartke and Birch Bayh and former Gov. Matthew Welsh, all Democrats. All were considered upsets.

The youngsters this year won't vote until Nov. 8, the same day as the general election.

Vandals Strike Hilltop Drive-In

State Police today continued investigation into vandalism at the Hilltop Drive-In Theater at Danforth reported Thursday by George Beaudry.

Troopers estimated damage at $500 or possibly more.

A total of 14 speaker stands were uprooted, the entrance gate broken, heavy blacktop chunks thrown at the screen and the screen tower room entered and holes kicked in walls.

Troopers said ventilating hoods from the projection room also were torn off and had there been a heavy rain projection equipment valued in thousands of dollars could have been extensively damaged.

The theater is closed for the season and troopers said the vandalism probably took place within the past couple of days. Officers said they have several suspects, but have not made any arrests.

GM Unwraps Dream Car Of Future Ideas

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors today took the wraps off some of its top-secret ideas for propelling autos of the future.

The dream car ideas ranged from new type electric batteries to fuel cells, and from gas turbines to a stirring thermal heat engine.

GM's top engineering and research brass made it plain to newsmen that none of the new power units was likely to be in general use on highways within the immediate future.

Much of GM's program at the firm's huge technical center in suburban Warren centered on showing operating, road models of the new power plant ideas.

Battery Power

Newsmen were given an opportunity to ride in a 1966 Corvair powered with 13 trays of silver-zinc batteries which gave the newly named Electrovair a top speed of 80 miles an hour and a range of 40 to 80 miles on a battery charge.

They saw an Electrovair, a converted GMC van powered with hydrogen-oxygen fuel cells whoosh by.

GM's decision to unveil some of its best-kept secrets came less than a month after Ford made page one news with its disclosure that it was experimenting with a new type sodium-sulfur battery which might bring the electric auto back.

Ford said it hoped to have two experimental cars in operation with the new type batteries within five years. It predicted the 500-pound battery would give a standard Ford Falcon a 134-mile range at a 40-mile speed.

Ford's experimental battery models shown to newsmen were tiny and generated only enough current to light a small string of electric light bulbs or to run a small motor.

Testing Since 1964

GM's executive vice president, Edward N. Cole, pointed out in remarks prepared for today's briefing for newsmen that GM had been testing the Electrovair car on its proving grounds since 1964 and that the Electrovair also had chugged up many miles in test runs. He said GM had been experimenting with battery-operated vehicles since 1966.

Dr. Lawrence Hafstad, GM vice president-research, cautioned that the internal combustion engine now used in autos has built up a good record and that it would be tough to displace.

Harry Barr, GM vice president engineering, added, "Our mission today is to show you that electric vehicle propulsion is technically possible. That still does not answer the question as to when it would be economically feasible or commercially acceptable from a performance standpoint. We declined to be oracles. We do not know all the answers at this time."

Two Systems

Hafstad described the two electric systems as:

1. A system where the fuel is carried in tanks and burned electrochemically in an energy converter — the fuel cell. GM officials said the two elements, hydrogen and oxygen, had some elements of danger from possible fire or explosion.

2. A system in which the fuel, or source is energy, is stored within the energy converter itself and which has the feature of being rechargeable — the electric battery system.

"A conceivable solution to the performance and range problem might be to combine a relatively small fuel cell, running continuously to provide average power, with a lead-acid or other high performance battery to provide peak power where required," he said.

The weight of the electric battery and fuel cell power plants provided some problems, GM officials said.

They gave tables to show the comparative performance characteristics of the new power plants and the conventional gasoline powered vehicles.

The Electrovair weight is 7,100 pounds; the GMC Van 3,250 pounds. The power train weight is 3,650 pounds against 870 pounds in the van.

The Electrovair weight is 3,400 pounds, the Corvair 2,600 lbs.

The power train weight, 1,230 pounds against 610 pounds for the Corvair.

Hamilton And Carmichael Face New Draft Quiz

NEW YORK (AP)—The draft deferments of actor George Hamilton and civil rights leader Stokely Carmichael, are up for re-examination by their local draft boards.

Hamilton, 27, a frequent escort of Lynda Bird Johnson, has been ordered to report for a physical examination a week from Monday.

He has been classified 3A, deferred from service under a category dealing with "extreme hardship" — he has stated that his mother is dependent on him as her sole source of support.

Carmichael, 25, is classified as 1Y, as not currently meeting the standards set by the armed forces for induction.

He began a series of consultations with specialists Thursday at St. Albans Naval Hospital in Queens, N.Y. The consultations were expected to last at least until this afternoon, when he was scheduled to leave for a "black power" conference at University of California at Berkeley.

He missed another black power rally at Stanford University in California today because of the consultations.

The results of Hamilton's physical examination and of Carmichael's consultations will be turned over to their local draft boards for consideration of possible reclassification.

Gehrke On Council

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney Thursday announced the appointment of Hans Gehrke Jr. of Grosse Pointe to the State Economic Expansion Council, succeeding James R. Seyferth of Muskegon. Senate confirmation is not required.

De Gaulle Says Win Impossible

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle declared today a military victory for the Americans in Viet Nam is impossible.

Speaking to a jam-packed news conference in Elysee Palace, the president said France does not plan to offer its mediation in the Vietnamese conflict.

He said neither side would welcome mediation and such a step would serve no purpose.

While he said the American Army could not possibly "subdue" Viet Nam, he conceded American military forces in Viet Nam are in no danger of being destroyed by their Viet Cong opponents.

Lamb Judging

EAST LANSING (AP)—More than 400 Michigan 4-H Club members, who have spent months preparing their prize steers, lambs and hogs, will have them judged next week at the 37th annual Detroit Junior Livestock Show. The livestock will be sold next Thursday.

SECOND ANNUAL GREAT NORTHERN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL CLASH

The ESCANABA Eskymos.

ESCANABA'S ESKYMOS will be the visiting team in their season finale against Holy Name Saturday at the EHS gridiron. The Eskymos will enter the contest with a 4-3 season record. Escanaba captured the first game in the series between the schools last year by a 26-0 margin. Members of the Eskymo squad are Jim Boyle, Gary Abrahamson, Steve Miketinac, Pat Cousineau, Greg Johnson, John Moberg, Bill Bellefeuil, Bob Irish, Dan Mylander, Bryan Bender, James Olsen, Dan Scheuren, Gerry Brazeau, Mike Stropich, Bob Palmquist, Mike Miller, Charles Bomaster, Mike Berro, Marty

This final game for both elevens will highlight a very successful season with the winner enjoying the second spot in the Great Northern Conference standings, and the loser assured of a third place finish. It is well that these two great schools meet to highlight each gridiron season, and the fond hope of a long and healthy spirit of competition is expressed by

Bewitching Treats For Young Pranksters

By JANET MARTIN

Halloween. All Hallows' Eve. Eve of All Saints — whatever you chose to call it, Oct. 31 has been a day of celebration for centuries.

The Druids in England gathered in their rings of stone while chanting their magical incantations, and the Romans honored the goddess of the orchards Pomona, with a special feast on this day. In the church calendar, it is a feast day and the eve of a solemn religious festival.

In more recent times, the celebrations have been associated with ghosts, witches, black cats and hobgoblins and all in all it is a day and night for fun and parties.

And no Halloween would be complete without the age old trick or treat custom. With this in mind we have put together a few delectable treats for favorite hobgoblins when they come door-bell ringing.

A munificent treat for little pranksters is a chocolate popcorn ball. Any youngster or older will be delighted to call "tricks" for this treat.

POPCORN BALLS

3 quarts popped corn
1 cup sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
1 cup cocoa
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1 tablespoon butter
8 teaspoon salt

Spread popped corn in a large shallow pan. In a medium size saucepan mix sugar and cocoa, then stir in corn syrup, evaporated milk, butter and salt. Cook over low heat, stirring all the time, until sugar is dissolved and butter is melted. Increase heat to medium and continue cooking and stirring 8 minutes. Pour over popped corn and mix lightly with two forks to coat well. Let stand 5 minutes to cool. Coat palms of hands lightly with butter, then shape coated popcorn into balls. Place on wax paper to cool. Makes 10 to 12 medium size popcorn balls.

Chocolate popcorn balls are a good snacktime food for family eating all year round. Since this confection is easy to make and wholesome, it is a great idea for an activity at teen get-togethers.

Now how about an up to date super charged treat, a pinch to light up the eyes of every little witch and ghost that comes to haunt your house. With molasses sweets always a favorite this recipe calls for an easy to make rolled molasses. Batman cookie, Zowie! To shape, simply outline a picture of Batman on heavy paper or cardboard and use this as a cutting guide for the cookies.

Package the cookies individually in transparent wrap, and Pow! they will zoom away faster than you can say Batman and Robin!

MOLASSES BATMAN COOKIES

4 C sifted flour
1 tsp salt
1 tsp baking soda
2 tsp baking powder
1 C shortening
1 C sugar
1 C molasses
2 eggs separated

Sift flour with salt, baking soda, and baking powder. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and beat until fluffy. Add molasses and egg yolks. (Reserve egg whites for frosting.) Mix well. Thoroughly mix in flour mixture. Wrap dough in waxed paper and chill until dough can be easily handled (at least 2-3 hours). Roll out small portions of dough about 1/4-inch thick on lightly floured board or pastry cloth. Cut cookies out in Batman shapes. Place on ungreased baking sheets. (If you prefer, roll dough out on waxed paper, cut and invert cookies on baking sheet.) Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F. about 10-12 minutes. Remove from oven. Cool about 2 minutes before removing from baking sheet. Cool completely. Frost. Makes about 16 8-inch cookies.

Trace Batman shape on heavy paper or cardboard to use as cutting guide.

Adjust baking time according to size of cookies.

FROSTING

2 egg whites
3 C sifted confectioners' sugar

Blend egg whites with sugar until frosting is proper consistency to go through decorating tube and hold shape. Decorate as shown in photograph. Makes about 2 cups frosting.

Here are two tasty punch recipes which when served with popcorn and doughnuts would be perfect for children's or adult parties.

TRICK OR TREAT RULES

Halloween trick or treating in Escanaba will be held this year, Monday, Oct. 31 from 5 to 7 p. m. With the day fast approaching school children and parents of the Escanaba area are asked to note the trick or treat recommendations set by the Escanaba Area PTA Council.

1—trick or treating should be limited to one night only, Monday, Oct. 31, from 5 to 7 p. m. 2—trick or treating should be limited to children in the elementary schools only. 3—children should stay in small groups where possible and small children should be accompanied by an adult. 4—children should limit their trick or treat activities to their own neighborhood. It is suggested that persons wishing to contribute to trick or treaters, so signify by leaving a porch light on or by placing a sign in the window.

To Help Children

On Halloween this year as in the past several years, children instead of asking treats for themselves, will attempt to help other children by trick or treating for UNICEF and the United Nation's Children's Fund.

The children will carry official UNICEF collection containers to identify them as making an appeal for children in less privileged lands. The slogan this year is: "Help Children help Children."

The appeal in this area is organized by the Escanaba Council of United Church Women headed by Mrs. Walter Bjorkquist. Participating churches are Central Methodist, Bethany Lutheran, Immanuel Lutheran, First Methodist and Park River Methodist.

Whether it is regular trick or treating or trick or treat for UNICEF, may it be a happy and safe evening for all. Happy Halloween!

Halloween Carnival At Jefferson

The Jefferson School annual Halloween Carnival will be held Monday evening, Oct. 31, from 7 to 9 p. m., with Mrs. Richard Winter, chairman.

The Kindergarten, with room mothers Mrs. Francis Artley and Mrs. Donald McMillan, will feature a candy sale; Mrs. George Semmens and Mrs. George Cavades will have the book sale, weight guessing, and a fortune teller; Mrs. John Schwabach will be in charge of the fish pond; with Mrs. Chester Weikop in charge of the treasure chest for the first grades.

The 2nd grade will feature games with Mrs. Walter Flath in charge; 3rd grade, Mrs. Leo Alperovitz, will be running the Country Store; Mrs. James Jacobs will present the annual cake walk for the 4th grade and Mrs. Merlyn Davidson will be in charge of the movie room for the 5th grade. Chairmen for the lunch room is Mrs. Nick Thiry. Hotdogs, doughnuts and coffee will be served. Pop and potato chips will be sold with Richard Winter in charge.

There will also be costume judging with prizes awarded.

Story Time On Saturday

All boys and girls of age three and above are invited to come to the Halloween Story Time to be held this Saturday morning in the Children's Room of Escanaba Public Library at 10 a. m.

The stories will be: "The Farmer and the Witch" — a smart farmer fools a wicked witch; "Miss Periwinkle's Predicament" — Miss Periwinkle always treated the boys and girls something special for Halloween, but this year she seemed to be away from home; and "Hoot and Howl and the Hiccups" — How could a witch scare anyone on Halloween when she had the Hiccups!

Church Events

Salvation Army

The Salvation Army Home League will be in charge of the evening service Sunday at 7:30 p. m. There will be special music and Mrs. Major Orville Butts will be the speaker. The public is invited to attend.

Rapid River

Mrs. Ruth Sundberg of Rapid River announces her candidacy for Masonville Township treasurer. Mrs. Mildred Stenlund, present treasurer, has withdrawn her name for re-election. Present candidates for the township post are Mrs. Sundberg and Mrs. Joyce Boyer, both of Rapid River. Election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 8 at the Rapid River Fire Hall; polls open at 7 a. m. close at 8 p. m.

O.E.S. To Hold Open Installation Saturday

On Saturday evening, Oct. 29, there will open installation of R. C. Hathaway Chapter 49, O.E.S. of Escanaba at the Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Delia Peterson will be the installing matron of the evening. She will be assisted by: Mrs. Pearl Williams, installing marshal; Mrs. Ann Karkishik, installing chaplain; Mrs. Margaret Malmann, installing organist; Mrs. Dorothy Olson, installing soloist.

DeMolay will escort the flag into the chapter room. The Bible will be presented at the Altar by the Job Daughters of Bethel Nine of Escanaba.

The evening will be dedicated to Electa, in memory of the worthy matron elect and conductress elect's mother, the late Hulda Peterson. Kay Nelson will present the new cup to the Chapter in her memory with a reading by the new worthy matron, Millie Olson.

All Masons, Eastern Stars and friends are cordially invited to attend. A reception will follow in the dining room with Ella Stadel, Alice Allan, Adele Plucker, Icie Roberts and Levida Hathaway, hostesses for the evening.

Halloween Party At St. Pat's

Saint Patrick's Halloween Party will be held Monday evening, Oct. 31 in Saint Patrick's parish hall. Chairman is, Mrs. Bud Hjort assisted by Mrs. Edward Saykily and Mrs. Peter Kobasic. It will be from 7 to 9 o'clock with costume judging and the bike raffle at 8 o'clock.

1st grade, fish pond; 2nd grade, games; 3rd grade, concession stand and white elephant sale; 4th grade, bingo; 5th grade, bake sale; 6th grade, cake walk; 7th and 8th grade, dance in school gym.

And our happy clown will also be at the carnival again this year.

Trick Or Treat For The Needy

The usual "trick or treat" of Halloween will get a different treatment Sunday afternoon starting at 4 o'clock by the youngsters of the Escanaba Seventh-day Adventist Church according to Mrs. Joseph Hainault, director of the Pathfinder Club.

Instead of treats for themselves, the children will ask for contributions of canned goods to help fill Thanksgiving baskets for needy families of the Escanaba area.

THE DODGE BOYS

SOLIDITY FEATURED: This three-bedroom ranch gives the appearance of being exactly what it is—a well-built house for a family of five or six, with emphasis on practical features that permit comfortable living and easy maintenance.

Easy Living, Modest Ranch

By ANDY LANG

More and more, easy maintenance continues to be a prime consideration of home buyers. Real estate men say that families now look closely at any and all features that will economically cut down on the chores necessary to keep a household running smoothly day in and day out. But this practical approach doesn't change the fact that they still want a house that looks well. As one prospective purchaser put it:

"If it's easy on the budget, easy on the back and easy on the eye, we'll consider it."

This three-bedroom ranch nicely balances visual appeal, easy maintenance and modest cost.

The approach to the house shows off its attractive lines: low roof look, extra length with the attached two-car garage, and a patio porch, leading to the recessed front door—a contemporary double-door for a gracious welcome.

Architect Lester Cohen's strategically-placed doors at various points are the basis for the easy maintenance factor. There's an entry for the garage at the side, under the covered front porch and leading directly to the front door. The result: dry access to the house in bad weather and a chance to remove outside grime from shoes or overcoats before going into the foyer. There's another entry from the rear of the garage to the family room and the stairs to the cellar.

G-57 STATISTICS

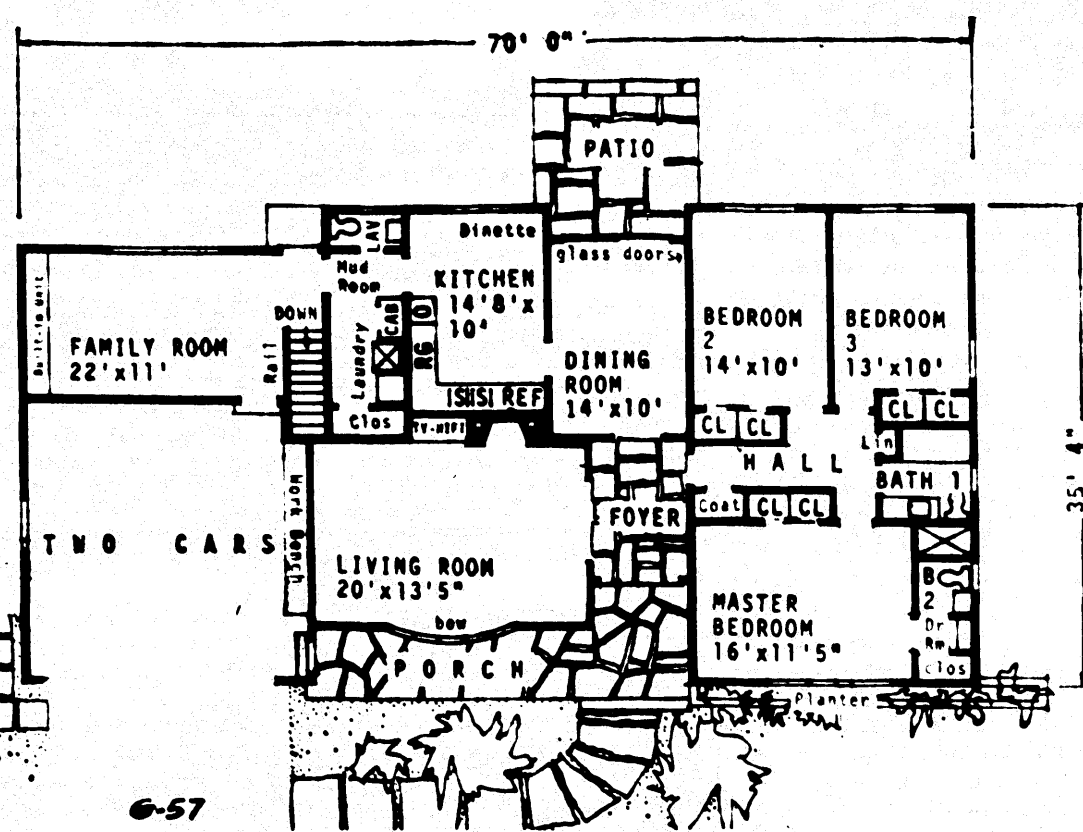

Design G-57 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, 2½ baths, a family room, laundry - mud room, foyer, patio, front porch and two-car garage. There are 1430 square feet for living, not including the family room or laundry-mud room, either or both of which can be built later if desired. Over-all dimensions are 70' by 35' 4", which do not include the garage.

This is especially practical when anything has to be carried from the car to the cellar without tracking through an activity or living area.

A rear service entrance also has the advantage of enabling movement from the yard or garden to the cellar. In addition, this entrance permits going to the mud-room, rear lavatory and laundry with the same absence of disturbance to any major room. The big gain here is the kitchen, which is at the rear of the house.

Still another access is that from the recessed patio at the rear to the formal dining room via sliding glass doors. All of this leaves the living room as a kind of dead-end area. This enables it to be kept party fresh at all times, with no movement through the room to get somewhere else and with no need to enter the room except when its own facilities are in use by family or guests. The living room's inside wall has a handsome fireplace, next to which is a TV-Hi-Fi alcove. There are excellent decorating possibilities because the wall space is good, and the bow window and fireplace offer such fine focal points.

The three bedrooms at the right side of the house are off their own hall, a privacy factor. Plenty of closet space and practical proportions make each room a self-contained unit for use by one or two members of the family. Easy going for a family of five, and more if bunk or a hi-rise studio bed are used in bedroom no. 3. A complete bathroom is at the FLOOR PLANS: A variety of entrances into the house cuts down on needless tracking through rooms not in use at the moment, easing the tasks of the homemaker; note, too, how the living room, set off by itself, can not be used as a passageway.

ALL NEED CONTINUOUS
ELECTRIC SERVICE

Shooting Insulators on Electric Lines is a Costly and Dangerous Practice!

Due to the careless use of firearms by thoughtless individuals we find that an increasing number of insulators on our high-voltage lines are being damaged by rifle fire. Service interruptions and the breakdown of power lines resulting from such willful destruction not only impose unnecessary expense and hardship on the Company, but creates a serious public hazard — causes inconvenience to electric customers and could start serious fires.

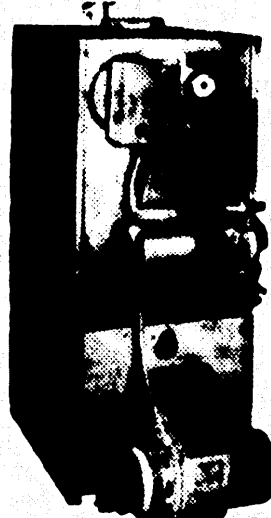

WARNING!

Electric power facilities of the Upper Peninsula Power Company provide a vital service to our communities. It is unlawful to tamper with, damage or destroy such property.

We ask your assistance in protecting these facilities so that we may continue to supply electric service to our customers, safely and efficiently.

it's time to change to an electric range...

Here's why more and more families are changing to electric cooking every year...

CLEAN... Kitchen walls and curtains stay cleaner. So do pots and pans... and the range itself. It's as clean as electric light.

SPEEDY... Heat starts the instant you flick a switch. And it goes directly to the utensil. You get accurate heat, controlled exactly with definite settings... the same every time!

AUTOMATIC... a modern electric range almost cooks by itself... gives you more time for your family or yourself. Precise measured heat cooks better.

BETTER... Results improve because cooking speeds are controlled... You need less water... and save the vitamins in the food for better health. See your dealer today!

Grain Cargoes On Great Lakes Set September Record

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Grain shipments on the Great Lakes last month totaled 2,802,449 net tons, a record for September, the Lake Carriers' Association reported Wednesday.

The total for the season to Oct. 1 was 16,749,695 tons, another record.

Coal shipments last month totaled 7,216,668 net tons, the highest for September in 18 years. Iron ore cargoes totaled 9,224,426 gross tons, the highest for a September since 1957.

Coal shipments for the season through September totaled 39,890,963 net tons, while iron ore cargoes for the same period totaled 56,006,492 gross tons.

The association said ships of U.S. registry carried only 10.8 per cent of the grain shipments this season, while 65.4 per cent was moved by the government-subsidized Canadian fleet.

Miss Teen Age Pageant Coming Nov. 5

POPPING UP—1967 MISS TEEN-AGE AMERICA: On Nov. 5 Miss Teen-age America for the coming year will be picked and crowned. This miss will be a different kind of beauty bud than the myriad other misses—America, Universe, World, etc. Smaller, perkier, snarlier, she'll be more the natural, attractive, average teen-age type. Yes, she'll rake in a $10,000 college scholarship, cars, stock in business, wardrobes . . . and $5,000 cash for personal appearances. But the girl who'll crown the new queen, Colette Daintie, the reigning queen, told us what it was like to win: "I wasn't picked for being a ravishing beauty . . . statuesque or being a slinky sex symbol . . . didn't appear in any bathing suit contest . . . but I did have to have high marks to compete . . . and during the year I was queen school came first; personal appearances were scheduled for weekends and vacation times."

NO-PRESS SHIRTS ARE HERE AGAIN: Guys are now wearing shirts that really need no pressing. The novel wrinkle in this no-wrinkle garment is that it can come through the toughest machine washing (at the laundry or at home) and hold its finish. The American Institute of Laundering which tested the shirt informed YOUTH BEAT: — "This new permanent press is sophisticated wash-and-wear . . . Because it has a stronger chemical content and an improved crease recovery rate, it can take even thorough commercial laundering without needing ironing."

MUSIC—THE RHYTHM IS REPEATING ITSELF: New versions of recent and not-so-recent hits are a feature of new records now swimming up to top popularity. The way-back

Youth Beat

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

"Rain on the Roof," cut in soft-rock style by the Lovin' Spoonful is one. The one-time smash hit, "Louie, Louie," in a lush, warmly harmonious re-do by the Sandpipers is another. And Billy Stewart rocks an infectious revival of the Doris Day standard, "Secret Love." Among the brand new ones to watch out for, here are two: "When She Needs Good Lovin' She Comes to Me," which will be hitting turntables and airwaves with electric impact . . . and "Peep Pop Pop," an Arizona sensation, now spreading East and West with a powerful beat.

YOU'RE SWIPING THE YOUNGER SET'S PETS: It's nearly two months till Christmas, but the way you're snatching up those big, kiddie, stuffed toy animals in stores indicates that a lot more than reindeer will be coming down chimneys on Dec. 25. A last-minute check among department store buyers reveals that money-happy teen-agers are avidly buying plush 6-foot dogs, cats, bears, lions, snakes and giraffes. The reason? Probably because you just want to . . . But also because of the new, more imaginative designs . . . such as designers adapting the big-eye craze to these stuffed pets. One, this year, dreamed up the nonexistent Slob . . . next year he has his sights on the Snark. Manufacturers now blow a polystyrene foam into the innards . . . making bigger foot . . . prices are down. Girls (till the time they get their college diplomas) are the most eager buyers . . . for themselves . . . and to give to other girls. To boys they send snakes. Boys reciprocate by giving tigers or spooked dogs (monsters of mixed-up ancestry) to girls. The toy world is banking on a lot of these big, already house-broken pets arriving at homes this Christmas — more for teens and post-teens than for the pre-teen set.

More Record Charts Than Eye Doctor

When people who work in the record business talk about charts, they generally mean charts of the 100 best-selling 45 r.p.m. records — most of them rock 'n' roll.

Cash Box and Billboard, magazines aimed toward those in the business, tabulate a new "Top 100" every week. A lot of radio stations do their own — often their "Top 40" most-played single records.

But Cash Box and Billboard are full of other charts besides rock — long-playing records, classical, country — western, rhythm and blues, charts showing what we were listening to five and 10 years ago, charts showing what they're listening to all over the world.

For example, remember Elvis Presley's "Hound Dog" and "Don't Be Cruel"? Well, they shared No. 1 ten years ago. Then there was No. 2, "My Prayer" by the Platters; No. 3,

"Whatever Will Be, Will Be," which Doris Day sang in a thriller movie; 4, "Canadian Sunset," by Hugo Winterhalter, and 5, "Tonight You Belong to Me," by Patience and Prudence — whatever happened to them?

Right now, in the United States, "Yellow Submarine" by the Beatles is still popular, but sliding down the charts. And Frank Sinatra's "Strangers in the Night" has gone all the way off, to be replaced by his "Summer Wind."

But "Strangers in the Night" is No. 1 in Argentina, No. 3 in France, No. 2 in Norway, No. 2 in Brazil, No. 3 in Italy, No. 2 in Germany, No. 7 in Japan. And "Yellow Submarine" is No. 2 in Denmark, No. 1 in Norway, No. 2 in Sweden, No. 1 in Australia, No. 2 in Great Britain, No. 1 in Germany.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

with Ray Crandall

When the Crusaders and Eskymos clash for the second time in history at the EHS gridiron Saturday, not a one of the athletes who contributed to the scoring in last year's game will be on the field. . . . Point producers in the 26-0 Eskymos victory last season were Bob Haack with two touchdowns, Ed Gauthier with a touchdown pass from Steve Anaslone and Tim O'Brien with a recovered fumble in the Holy Name end zone. . . . Jim Hansen booted two PATs.

Frank Leach of Perkins placed third in the Upper Peninsula Class C-D cross country run staged last week at Marquette. . . . Leach was timed in 11 minutes 5.1 seconds for the two mile run on the Marquette Golf and Country Club. . . . The C-D winner was Greg Ledy of DeTwin, who topped the field for the second straight year, in 14:55.2. . . . Lyle Bold of Cooks placed 9th, Gary Stinson of Perkins 14th and Tim Carley of Cooks 19th.

The Gladstone junior varsity football team compiled some impressive statistics in its eight straight victories this season. . . . The junior Braves tallied 236 points while allowing their opponents 64. . . . Quarterback Bruce Richards connected on 30 of 50 passes for 922 yards and halfback Ricky Lorenson rambled for 1,065 yards in 92 carries for an average of 11.5 per trip. . . . Top receivers were Steve Nelson with 10, Eric Treichel and Dean Culliton 8 apiece.

Coches Billie Dotch and his Northern Michigan University Wildcats gridiron will be out to beat the "Ohio Jinx" when they face Findlay College Saturday night. . . . Two of Northern's three setbacks this season have been suffered in Buckeye country. . . . The Wildcats bowed to Akron, 18-10, and to Dayton, 10-0.

For a sophomore, and a small one at that, Kingsford's Dick Berliniski is playing a considerable role in the fortunes of Michigan State, the nation's No. 2 ranked college football team. . . . Berliniski has carried the ball seven times from scrimmage and has returned three kickoffs for the Spartans, gaining a total of 63 yards. . . . Even more impressive to Michigan State coaches and fans has been his superb blocking for such star backs as Clint Jones and Bob Apisa.

Danny Litwiler, Michigan State baseball coach, will be the speaker at the annual upcoming junior baseball banquet Saturday night which will draw some 400 American Legion, Babe Ruth, Little League and Midwest League players. . . . Litwiler is a former major leaguer who played for the Phillies, Cardinals, Redlegs and Braves.

A crowd of 10,000 fans is expected to be on hand when Coach Jack Finn's Battle Creek Central Bears meet Ann Arbor Friday night. . . . The unbeaten Battle Creek griders, rated No. 1 in the state Class A poll, must overcome a terrible jinx to win the game. . . . A Battle Creek team hasn't won in Ann Arbor since 1948.

Bill (Sugar) Popp, coach of the state Class C champion L'Anse high school basketball team, has been named on the staff which will conduct a cage clinic at Port Huron Junior College on Nov. 5. . . . Other coaches on the staff are Ray Burkhardt of Ferndale and Corne Byrath of Grand Rapids East Christian, state Class A and B champions.

Hand Forecasts Packers To Win

By JACK RAND
NEW YORK (AP)—Green Bay, Dallas and Cleveland figure to romp this week but it will be a tight fight in the other National Football League games. San Diego is regarded as the only sure thing in the American Football League.

Here's how the coming games look to this prognosticator (all games are Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL
Green Bay 24, Detroit 14 — The Packers always bring out the best in the Lions, especially that pass rush and Karl Sweetan showed surprising poise last week. But Green Bay has too much punch and should black out Detroit's offense.

Baltimore 24, Los Angeles 16 — Colts have won last five from Rams and are showing good balance with Tom Matte, Tony Lorick and John Unitas.

Dallas 25, Pittsburgh 10 — Cowboys come home after loss and tie in last two outings, looking for somebody to take it out on.

Cleveland 21, Atlanta 17 — A rabbit shoot for the Browns whose only trouble will be getting up for Falcons after big win over Dallas.

Minnesota 24, San Francisco 21 — A toughie. They played 26-20 in opener but there have been three in a row after shaky start.

Washington 20, Philadelphia 17 — After watching Redskins lose to Giants and then seeing Eagles ramble over same club it's hard to pick Washington but they must have done something right against St. Louis.

Chicago 14, St. Louis 13 (Monday night) — This one is on national (CBS) TV. Bears have beaten their former Chicago buddies five straight in regular season and 25-20 in exhibition. New York has the bye.

AFL
Buffalo 24, New York 21 — A must game for both clubs. Bills have won six of last seven from Jets. Anything can happen. Flip a coin. Could be a tie or a rout.

Fighting Lions Tackle Green Bay

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions, showing all kinds of fighting spirit the past week, try their new-found offense against the Green Bay Packers' tough defense here Sunday.

Green Bay hasn't allowed a touchdown and only one field goal in its last two National Football League victories and should test severely rookie Karl Sweetan's ability to move the club.

Sweetan lifted the Lions last Sunday against San Francisco and lost 37-34 only on a last-second pass by John Brodie to Monty Stickles.

The fighting spirit showed up early in that game when Detroit linebacker Wayne Walker was thrown out of the game for slugging Stickles.

Then Sweetan showed some more as the Lions came from behind once to tie and again to lead, 24-20, with less than a minute remaining.

Sweetan hit Jim Gibbons, now out with a knee injury, for what appeared to be the winning touchdown.

Thursday Sweetan pleaded innocent to assault and battery charges and demanded a jury trial. The 24-year-old rookie, who became the starting quarterback when Milt Plum was lost with a knee injury, was

Second Escanaba-Holy Name Gridiron Clash Set Saturday Afternoon; Both Teams In Peak Shape

The second annual Holy Name-Escanaba prep football classic will be staged Saturday at the EHS gridiron with the opening kickoff at 1:30.

Riding on the season finale will be second place in the final Great Northern Conference standings. Also at stake will be a handsome new Escanaba Daily Press traveling trophy which will be presented to the winning school at the annual awards assembly.

The teams have met only once in previous football history, with Escanaba scoring a 26-0 victory last fall.

A capacity crowd is expected to see Coach Tom O'Neil's Crusaders put their glossy 6-1 season record on the line against the Eskymo team that carries a 4-3 mark into the season finale. Coach Jerry Cvengros' Eskymos will be the visiting team in the contest.

Season Records

Holy Name has forged its impressive record with victories over Iron Mountain (7-0), Kingsford (12-0), Stephenson (38-0), Marquette Baraga (26-0), Manistique (48-32) and Munising (38-0). The lone setback was suffered to undefeated Menominee by a 20-7 margin.

Escanaba victories came over Kingsford (12-6), Stephenson (38-0), Alpena (6-0) and Iron Mountain (28-12). The Esky setbacks were suffered to Antigo (28-7), Menominee (18-4) and Marinette (38-0).

O'Neil is a newcomer to the series, serving his first year as Holy Name head grid mentor after a seven year coaching career in North Dakota. Cvengros, native of Ironwood and former University of Wisconsin lineman, is in his fifth season as head coach of the Eskymos. His teams have won 23, lost 11 and tied 2 to date.

Balanced HV Attack

A finely balanced attack has produced 171 points for the Crusaders this season. Holy Name's defensive record of 70 points is one of the best in the Upper Peninsula.

Emerald Pass Attack Proves Potent Weapon

MANISTIQUE—Sixteen seniors will be playing their final game for the Manistique Emeralds tonight when Coach Ron Rubick's griders close out the 1964 season with a home stand against Rudyard.

Wearing their green and white uniforms for the last time will be Dave Barton, Leonard Cournoya, Mike Creedan, Gary Demers, Larry DeRousha, Steve Fish, James Hololik, Steve Hololik, Gary Lander, Jerry Leach, William Malas, Don McCurdy, William McKilligan, Gary Thompson, Dan Chartier and Phil Villeneuve.

The Emeralds will carry a record of three victories against five defeats into the contest. It has been an uphill battle for the inexperienced Manistique team that opened the season without a single returning regular in the lineup.

The Emeralds lost their first four starts of the campaign before finding the winning combination midway in the season. Since then they have won three out of four, beating Gladstone, Newberry and Marquette while bowing to Holy Name.

Triggering the Manistique comeback has been the passing combination of quarterback Bob Cowman and end Gary Sample, a pair of classy junior athletes.

Cowman, 6 feet 1 inch and 175 pounds, has fired a record 246 passes and completed 101 for 1,350 yards and eight touchdowns. In addition to connecting on 42 per cent of his southpaw arials, Cowman has scored two touchdowns and an extra point on the ground. He has also passed for four PATs, thus accounting for 63 of the 108 points scored by the Emeralds this fall. Cowman earned the starting quarterback in the third game of the season.

Sample, the other half of Manistique's potent air attack, is 6 feet 3 inches and weighs 185. He has hauled in 48 passes good for 584 yards and eight touchdowns along with three extra points. That makes his scoring contribution 51 points.

In addition, Sample has intercepted four enemy arials from his middle safety spot. Rudyard will carry a record of one victory, one tie and five defeats into the contest.

Braves Lose 8th Player

Coach Don Pfotenbauer's Gladstone Braves bring the curtain down on a nightmarish season when they travel to Marquette to face Bishop Baraga at 8:15 tonight.

With seven Gladstone players already sidelined with a long list of injuries and illnesses, the Braves lost their eighth when Pat LaFave, starting guard, suffered a broken bone in his foot.

Pfotenbauer also announced today that Bill Johnson's badly sprained ankle will keep him out of action completely while halfback Gary Larson has been out of school with the flu this week.

Here's how the Braves will line up on offense tonight: Mark Stupak and Ron Deault at ends, Roy DeWitt and Allan Rabitoy at tackles, Jim Cornell and sophomore Mike Lagina at guards, Dick Flisk at center, Dan Pepin at quarterback, Dan LaCombe or Jeff Orton at halfback, Mike Damitz at the other half and Mike Maniaci at fullback.

The combined Holy Name and Escanaba high school football bands will perform Saturday in pre-game and halftime entertainment, it was announced today by school officials.

The halftime show will be based on great presidents of the United States.

North Carolina's last winning football season was in 1963 when the Tar Heels won 9 of 11 games.

The Crusaders feature a running attack that has produced 1,611 yards this season. O'Neil has four extremely talented backs operating behind a rugged front line.

Heading the list is senior Bob Brisco, hard hitting halfback who has rambled for 600 yards in 90 trips for a 6.6 average. Brisco has accumulated nine touchdowns.

The other three Holy Name running backs are Joe Young, Chris Young and Mike Dubord and their season statistics read like three peas in a pod. Joe Young has carried the ball 67 times for 343 yards, Chris Young 66 times for 356 and Dubord 60 for 315. That all adds up to better than five yards per trip for all three of the runners. They have produced a total of 11 touchdowns.

Cannon Engineer

Engineering Holy Name's offense is Dave Cannon, a slick senior signal caller who has completed 28 of 66 passes for 577 yards and six touchdowns. Cannon is a superb field general and an excellent ball handler.

Fronting the Crusader backfield corps will be Tom Menard and Bob Gorenchan at ends, John Way and Dennis Allingham at tackles, Dale Shandoney and Dan Pfeiffer at guards and Mike Moberg at center.

"We are at full strength and everybody should be ready to go all-out Saturday," was O'Neil's observation on his team's physical condition. The Crusaders have been bothered by a troublesome session with boils for most of the season.

"Because of the intense rivalry in this game, you can throw the season records out the window," O'Neil continued. "We know that Escanaba has a good football team and we are expecting a rugged time. I personally regard Escanaba as the most under-rated team in the Upper Peninsula," he stated.

Two Key Eskymos

The Eskymos have scored 118 points while allowing their opposition 100 entering the campaign windup.

Press Trophy Rules Posted

The Daily Press Trophy will be put into circulation in the football series between Holy Name and Escanaba this year for the first time.

The trophy will be presented to the school that wins Saturday's game at a future awards assembly. It will remain in the possession of that school until the rival school scores a victory in football.

In announcing the trophy presentation this week, Ralph S. Kaslasek, Daily Press general manager, stated that the purpose of the trophy was to lend stature to the healthy athletic competition between the schools.

The Daily Press today listed several regulations governing the presentation of the trophy, as follows:

1 — The Escanaba Daily Press will purchase the trophy and will assume financial responsibility for any repairs because of damage or other deterioration of the trophy during the passage of years.

2 — The Daily Press will assume the cost of engraving the nameplate and the two shields bearing the names of the schools winning the first two games of the series, which started in 1963. The engraving will be completed when the trophy is presented to the winner of the 1964 game.

3 — In case of a tie game, the trophy will be placed in possession of the host team for the first half of the school year and in possession of the visiting team for the second half of the school year.

4 — The cost of replacing the present trophy, if the need arises in the future, will be the responsibility of the Daily Press.

5 — If the series between the schools is ever terminated, the trophy will become the permanent possession of the school with the most victories, or the last school to win it if the series is tied.

In listing the fifth and final regulation governing the trophy, it was pointed out today by Ray Crandall, Daily Press sports editor, that the newspaper was in no manner indicating that the series was in danger of ending.

"The provision is included simply to regulate the disposal of the trophy in the event that the series should ever terminate in the future, for whatever reason," he emphasized.

"It is my hope, and the hope of the newspaper, that the football series between the schools will continue as long as athletics are sponsored by Holy Name and Escanaba. I feel that a healthy, intense athletic rivalry between the schools will strengthen ties in the schools and in the community," he stated.

"Football is one of our greatest sports and competition is a fact of life. This series combines the sport and the competition to make it one of the community's annual athletic highlights," Crandall said.

Dr. Thomas To Speak Nov. 3

The 1966 elections will be discussed in Escanaba by Dr. Norman C. Thomas of the University of Michigan, Thursday, Nov. 3.

His lecture, together with a piano recital by Theodore Ullmann, are the events in the Day de Noc Community College "Man and the Arts" series for next week. Both programs will be in the William Bonifas Auditorium at 8 p. m., with an admission charge to the general public.

Norman Thomas, to be distinguished from the older political figure of the same name, is 31 years of age and is an Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan. He received an undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan and his Master's and Doctoral Degrees from Princeton University.

After serving in the U. S. Naval Reserve as a supply corps officer, he has studied the political scene and received many honors for his research contributions to the political understanding. One of his recent publications was a book entitled "Congress: Politics and Practices," published by Random House.

The lecture is scheduled as close as possible to the November election date to be of value both to the students and to the general public in analyzing election issues and political questions.

UNICEF Puts Heart In Halloween

There are many superstitions related to the observance of Halloween—but it took children and UNICEF to give Halloween a real helping heart.

The United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) was the recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize for its role in efforts to meet the needs of children in the underdeveloped countries of the world.

The trick-or-treat for UNICEF—children helping children—began in the United States in 1950, when a group of Sunday school youngsters decided they would ask treats for the worthy cause. They had fun and collected $17.

Last fall, about 3.5 million American children in more than 13,000 communities raised $2.5 million for UNICEF.

In the Escanaba area the "share, not scare" appeal is sponsored by The Escanaba Council of United Church Women, Children of the Central Methodist, Bethany Lutheran, First Methodist, Immanuel Lutheran and Bark River Methodist will receive gifts for UNICEF on Halloween.

There is little left of the fear and superstition once connected with Halloween.

In the early days the Celts of England and northern France believed that evil gods began their rule in late October, and that they summoned the wicked and transformed the worst into black cats. The Druids, however, lit large fires on hill tops and celebrated in defiance of the darkness, wearing masks to elude the evil ones.

The Romans marked the end of the harvest with festivals and when the Roman Empire spread over to the British Isles the celebrations were blended into a single event. Still more recently, in 835 A. D., Nov. 1 became a Christian holiday and the preceding night—All Hallows' Even—became a night of non-religious revelry, combining traditions both pagan and Christian.

The merriment took the fear out of ancient superstitions and the merry-makers were offered "treats" for not playing "tricks" on those they visited. Through the efforts of the children who trick-or-treat for UNICEF, the good that giving does at Halloween has brought better health to millions of underprivileged children in other lands.

Medics On Call For Emergency

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Physicians from the Kent County Medical Society will rotate on 24-hour call to assist police and fire officials at accidents and disasters, the society reports.

According to society officials several physicians have volunteered for the program, but Police Chief William Johnson says they will be called "only in cases of dire emergency."

In addition to the volunteer service one physician will speak to firemen and police officers at a meeting every three months. Purpose of the talks is to acquaint the agencies with various emergency methods.

Johnson said Grand Rapids is one of the few cities in the nation to have such a program.

For 5 Mechanics

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A grant of $4,195 from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare will train five Grand Rapids area persons in a 40-week course in auto mechanics. It has been announced.

Begin Solid State Research Center

LEMONT, Ill. (AP)—Construction will start this month on a multimillion dollar center for research in the solid state sciences, the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission's Argonne National Laboratory announced Wednesday.

The center will house 36 experimental laboratories in a 105,000 square foot, two-story brick building on the Argonne site, southwest of Chicago. A $3.7 million construction contract has been signed with the Miller-Davis Construction Co., Kalamazoo, Mich. Occupancy of the building is scheduled for the summer of 1968.

This year... move up

(instead of sideways)

Now there are 5 ways to move up to a full-size Chrysler. Just tell us how far up you want to go.

1. Start with our 4 Newport models. Priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped.
2. Newport Custom. A low-priced Chrysler you can afford.
3. Our sports-bred 300s come with the biggest standard engine available in the medium-price field.
4. The Town & Country wagon is a luxury car in front. Over 97 cu. ft. of carpeted-on-the-floor cargo space in back.
5. And New Yorker, our most luxurious Chrysler. You can get it with extra-cost features like the new 3-in-1 front seat. And the passenger side reclines.

We just gave you 5 good reasons, now it's up to you.
